Product Sourcing Services – because price matters !

Dear Kevin

Just a brief note to thank you for my EnglishProducts.co.uk web site optimisation.

When I came to you, I had a great site very well designed, but languishing on the 7th page of Google. Very frustrating as the site was only created to gain enquiries, especially foreign ones, so not being at the top even in the UK searches was an issue to me.

Now, only a month later, after you took it out of a database, and began optimising it, I'm one and two in Google worldwide.

Kevin, everyone says they can optimise sites, and then seem to explain away why they can't achieve it despite taking regular monies, so it pleases me immensely that you are both reasonable in value and have been correct in your abilities to get me to the front page. To get to number one and two at the same time has just been an unexpected bonus.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Lawrie Elwell
